South Carolina-bred Skiptothegoodpart sets three track records

Four Board Stable's Skiptothegoodpart set a track record at his third different race track in 2006 with a victory at Turfway Park on September 29. Skiptothegoodpart was bred in South Carolina by Camden Stud LLC and Skip Away, LLC. He is by Skip Away out of the Salt Lake mare Cally.

The 5-year-old chestnut gelding trained by William Denzik Jr. rallied inside the sixteenth pole under Randall Toups to win the five-furlong starter allowance race by a head. He stopped the clock in :57.23, which bettered Turfway's previous track record (:58.81) by more than one and a half seconds.

The track record was the third for Skiptothegoodpart from just five starts this year. The previous two were both at five furlongs on the turf—at Indiana Downs (:56.54) on May 9 and River Downs (:56) on June 18. The race at Turfway was on Polytrack.

"Skiptothegoodpart is a neat little horse who's been a lot of fun this year," said Jim Cullen, president of Four Board Stable. "He has his quirks: He can't take a lot of pounding, and he's not the hardiest horse you'll find. But he seems to put all those problems behind him when he hits the track, and he fires every time. He just loves to run and we are all very proud of what he's accomplished. I don't know how many horses have set track records at three tracks in one year but there can't be too many."

The SCTOBA congratulates and wishes continued success for South Carolina-bred Skiptothegoodpart.

First nomination for 2007 South Carolina Residency Races

A 2005 Good and Tough filly out of the mare Uppity (by Colony Light) is the first nominee for the 2007 South Carolina Residency Races to be run at Philadelphia Park in the fall of 2007. The filly was nominated for the Donna Freyer Stakes for her owners Willow Racing LLC and Anne Kontos.

The Donna Freyer is open to 2-year-old fillies who have spent at least 90 days in South Carolina by June 30, 2007.

The Christopher Elser Memorial is open to 2-year-old colts and geldings who have spent 90 days in South Carolina by June 30, 2007.

In each case, a nomination fee must be paid to the SCTOBA. The early bird deadline fee of $100 must be postmarked by January 16, 2007. The regular nomination fee of $200 must be postmarked by July 2, 2007.
